

As of this morning Geddis does not plan to start construction until July 30.

Please note that the completion date has not changed and that date is still August 25.

You will be seeing more activity next week as layout will be completed and utility companies will be on-site marking underground facilities.